Welcome to Heap Online

This resource is intended as a starting point for research into university degree courses available to you, depending on your predicted (or actual) UCAS tariff points. We do not claim to offer information about every course available at every institution, but hope that the wealth of information provided here will give you some ideas about the subjects and courses you could study at university and will help you to narrow down your options before you contact the universities themselves for further, more detailed, information.

To get started click on one the tabs above.

Course Search will take you to the search page where you can find courses by subject or title and within specific UCAS tariff points ranges for entry.

Help gives you options on subscriptions, FAQs and allows you to give us some feedback.

About will give you some background information on HEAP and Trotman.

Choosing Your Course will take you to some advice about how to make the right course choice as well as information about the application process and admissions tests and interviews.

If you have any queries or would like to give us some feedback then please contact us.

www.push.co.uk

The self confessed 'ruthless, independent guide to UK Universities' which takes into account lots of feedback about universities. It does have a course chooser and helps out with gap year choices, if that's what you are looking for. You do need to sign up to get full use of the site.

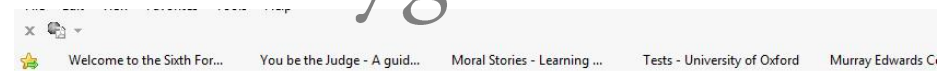

The screenshot shows the Push.co.uk website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links like 'Welcome to the Sixth For...', 'You be the Judge - A guid...', 'Moral Stories - Learning ...', 'Tests - University of Oxford', 'Murray Edwards College ...', 'Corpus Christi College Ox...', and 'Controversial debate topi...'. Below this is a login section with 'USERNAME:' and 'PASSWORD:' fields, and a 'Forgot Password' link. A large red banner spans the top of the main content area. On the left, a yellow sticky note reads '...like it is The ruthlessly independent guide to UK universities'. Below it, a red circular logo with 'PUSH' is visible. Further down, a list of links includes 'Join Uni chooser', 'This month Jargon jungle', 'Top tens', 'League tables', 'About Push', 'Talks', 'Supporters', and 'Links'. A 'PUSH POLL' section asks 'How did you do in your exams?' with options: 'Better than I thought', 'I got the grades I needed', and 'Things didn't go quite according to plan'. Below this are 'Results' and 'Vote' buttons, and a 'Poll Archives' link. The main content area features a 'Welcome to Push.co.uk' message, a 'Uni Chooser' section with a description and a list of bullet points, a 'Join' section with a description and a list of bullet points, and a 'Gap Year Zone' section with a description and a list of bullet points. On the right, a 'Top Tens' section lists 'Uni chooser', 'Review a uni', 'Gap year', 'Chatterbox', 'This month', 'Roehampton University', 'Application timetable', 'International Students', 'Money matters', 'Open Days', 'League Tables', 'Sex ratio: most blokes', 'Jargon jungle', and 'Cheapest Booze'. A yellow sticky note on the right reads 'which applies only in the House of Commons. And to think we did it on local authority grants! - the late only Banks MP, on is student days.' A red vertical bar is on the far right. The background of the website is decorated with various items like a beer can, a coin, and a key.

A more formal layout with plenty of good information. It does have a useful 'course chooser' feature which allows you to put in A-Levels and types of institution and generate a result based on these.

Use the CUG Course Chooser tool to search through over 100,000 courses from more than 350 UK universities and colleges.

- Fill in at least one field to search the course database. For combined courses enter two or more subjects.
- Once you've found a course you're interested in, click on it to get detailed information about entry requirements fees, the modules you'll study, and much more.

How to choose a course

Once you know what to aim for and which type of study, you might still find a lot of relevant courses to choose from.

First check entry requirements

- Read about the kinds of entry requirements courses can have.
- Use our search tools to see exactly what each course requires.

Other than that, how you choose depends on what's most important to you.

Best of the rest

Here is a list of a few sites that are good for comparison of university courses and the institutions themselves:

- university.which.co.uk
- <http://www.telegraph.co.uk/education/universityeducation/9888722/How-to-choose-the-right-university-for-you.html>
- <http://www.theguardian.com/education/2013/jun/03/top-tips-for-choosing-university>
- Universitycompare.com (good for Universities with the best sports facilities/employment rate, etc)

Good luck, contact us if you need help.
